GIABRA PIERIDES MUSEUM EDUCATIONAL ROOM - GENERAL INFORMATION

The Giabra Pierides Museum Educational Room is situated on the mezzanine level of the Bank of Cyprus Cultural Foundation, (hereinafter called as “the Cultural Foundation”) at 86-90 Faneromeni Street, 1011 Nicosia. The centre may be reserved by natural persons, organized groups and entities (hereinafter called as “the Organizer or the Organizers”) for the hosting of events of a cultural or scientific nature.

Within the framework of its social contribution, the Cultural Foundation provides yearly an amount to support the work of approved charitable institutions or organizations by bearing the costs of the use of the Foundation’s facilities (Giabra Pierides Museum educational room or “Andreas Patsalides” hall or open-air theatre or atrium) for charity events. In such cases, order of priority shall apply and every approved charitable institution or organization has the right to use such facilities under these conditions only once a year.

Rental Fees for the educational room (all sums are inclusive of VAT 19%)

Monday to Friday (up to 3 hours) €100 | Saturday and Sunday (up to 3 hours) €150

For every additional hour: Monday to Sunday €25 (The current fees apply for reservations made from 01/05/18)

In cases when the Organizer wishes to hold more than four events within the same year, the following discounts apply:

5 to 9 events -5% | 10 to 19 events -10%
20 to 29 events -20% | 30+ events -30%

The basic charge of €100 from Monday to Sunday applies to recurring events.

Venue: Bank of Cyprus Cultural Foundation
Giabra Pierides Museum Educational Room
86-90 Faneromeni Str., Old Nicosia
GIABRA PIERIDES MUSEUM EDUCATIONAL ROOM - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The hall shall be used solely for the intended purpose, as specified in the event “Rental Agreement” regarding the educational programmes centre.

2. The Cultural Foundation reserves the right to decline renting the hall at its sole discretion.

3. The Cultural Foundation reserves the right to deny provision of the hall when the subject of the event is against the common feeling or the Foundation’s reputation.

4. The hall cannot be rented to Political Parties, or for the purpose of exhibiting works of art, photographs or other kinds of visual material.

5. The Organizer cannot transfer or grant or lease to any person the right to use the hall.

6. Any kinds of alterations, changes or additions either inside or outside the hall, are prohibited.

7. If the Organizer wishes to place additional equipment in the hall or move the hall’s existing equipment, this may be allowed, given that it is feasible, on the Organizer’s responsibility and expenses, following an approval by the Management and under the guidance and supervision of the Cultural Foundation’s designated technician.

8. No obstructions shall be placed at the emergency exits of the hall. The aisles shall be kept clear of chairs or any other obstacles that could cause safety risks.

9. The use of flammable or other hazardous materials that could put at risk those present, the event spaces and the building in general, is strictly prohibited.

10. The sale of any product in the course of the event is prohibited, unless permission is granted in advance by the Management of the Cultural Foundation.

11. The placement of any advertising materials, signage etc., inside or outside the hall, is forbidden, unless permission is granted in advance by the Management of the Cultural Foundation.

12. In case that, during the course of the event, damages are caused to the furniture, technical equipment, electrical installation, lighting, air-conditioning, floor, the walls, and generally any equipment within the hall, the Organizer of the event shall be deemed responsible and shall reimburse the Cultural Foundation.

13. The Cultural Foundation shall not be liable under any circumstances for any injury, damage, loss or theft of property or items belonging to an individual and occurring inside the hall during the course of the event.
14. In case the hall should be used for trials or rehearsals prior to the day or time of the event, the Management of the Cultural Foundation shall be informed in advance and a list with the names of the persons involved in the rehearsals shall be forwarded to it. It must be emphasized that no access shall be allowed to any person whose name is not included in the list.

15. In case of mass media coverage, of an event, the Cultural Foundation must be informed in advance, so that the instructions of the Foundation’s technician should be followed.

16. Permission should be granted, in advance, by the Management if the Organizer wishes to offer food or drinks. All expenses shall be borne by him/her.

17. It must be noted that the technician of the Cultural Foundation is the only person in charge of the hall. No other person has the right to intervene in the operation of the hall and its equipment. The Organizer is obliged to comply with the instructions of the technician.

18. In case of an event of an increased number of participants (regarding both organizers and spectators), the Cultural Foundation may require that the organizer take out in advance a third-party insurance with a minimum limit of liability of €100.000 for each claim.

19. The Organisers are not permitted to charge entrance fees for any event hosted at the hall unless such permission is granted, in advance, by the Management.

20. By the end of the event, the Organizer shall deliver the hall, its premises and equipment in their original condition. If any damage has occurred, the Cultural Foundation shall have the right to demand full compensation from the Organizer. Upon request, the Foundation may provide cleaning services during the event and the extra cost shall be borne by the Organizer.

21. The Cultural Foundation is not responsible for publicizing the events hosted in its facilities.

22. An invoice shall be issued for the use of the area, reflecting the amount formulated on the basis of the events that took place. If pertaining to isolated events, the invoice must be settled within 48 hours from the conclusion of the event. For a series of events, settlement shall be made as provided for in the Hall Rental Agreement. If the Organizer wishes to rent two or more areas at the same time, it lies within the discretion of the Cultural Foundation to offer 10% discount, when technical requirements allow. A copy of the transaction must be forwarded to info@cultural.bankofcyprus.com or to fax 22 662898.

23. All the terms of this agreement are considered essential.
